

Auto Magazine

Model 31 Two-Passenger Coupe with Third Person Seat

SHOULD you prefer a two-passenger enclosed car, with seat room for an occasional third person, your desire will be delightfully fulfilled in the Model 31 coupe. It is suitable for the use of the social woman or the high-pressure business man who must keep his appointments "on the dot."

Specifications Model 31 Two-Passenger Coupe with Third Person Seat

- Body Dimensions:—Seat, width 45 inches, depth 20 inches. Folding third person seat, 14 x 14 inches. Distance from back of seat to front of dash, 52 inches. Glass to glass, 36 inches.
- Upholstery:—Superfine Waterloo broadcloth or leather; blue, green or maroon shades. Imported gaskin, fancy novelty cloth or whipcord on order.
- Painting:—Blue, Brewster green and maroon. (Special colors extra.)
- Wheel Base:—96 inches.
- Tread:—56 inches.
- Control:—Horizontal lever, permitting use of full width of seat.
- Brakes:—Two 12 x 1½ expanding brakes in each rear hub.
- Steering:—Side lever.
- Battery:—60 cells A-4 Edison battery; 38 cells 11 plate M. V. M. lead battery.
- Fenders:—Aluminum, full skirted to body.
- Tires:—Optional, 32 x 4 Special Electric Pneumatic or 34 x 4 Cushion.
- Equipment:—Side lamp, tail lamp, hub odometer, inspection lamp, outfit of tools, flower vase and complete toilet and card case with watch, third person adjustable seat.

Speed:—5, 8, 13, 17, 20 miles per hour.

Mileage:—65 to 100 miles.

Price:—Lead Battery $2600

Edison Battery 3210
F. O. B. Detroit.

Rear Seat View, Model 31, Showing Door Pocket and Hanging Arm Rest